
“An Ideal God-send...and a God-send for Ideals”

“When the Lord has done all he promised and has made you leader of Israel, don’t let this be a blemish on your record. Then your conscience won’t have to bear the staggering burden of needless bloodshed and vengeance.”

1 Samuel 25:30-31

If my life story was a movie, would it be worth watching?

There’s a back-story of David’s meeting with Abigail.

Killing Goliath took epic courage; not killing Saul took epic integrity.

Even in the tightening vice-grip of life-threatening pressures, David maintains his ideals.

David has a Jekyll-&-Hyde transformation.

Ideals that were once so clear and passionately held, get fuzzy and become a victim of expediency.

Weaponless in a sword-swinging world,
Abigail disarmed David.

Abigail skillfully reminds David of his destiny.

Abigail has been an ideal God-send to David and was a God-send to preserve his ideals.

Is there anyone in my life who reminds me:

- of my highest ideals?
- of my God-ordained destiny?
- that I am meant for more?
